Form MissionFirst JV, LLC.

MissionFirst JV, LLC formed to Expand Federal Mission Support North Beach, Maryland

North Beach, Maryland, August 25th, 2025 – Oxford Government Consulting, LLC (OxfordGC) and MGR Professional Services, Inc. (MGR) today announced the formation of MissionFirst JV, LLC, a new joint venture purpose-built to pursue and perform federal government small business contracting opportunities. MissionFirst JV brings together the complementary strengths of OxfordGC and MGR to deliver high-impact solutions that put mission outcomes first.

MissionFirst JV is structured as an unpopulated joint venture, with MGR serving as the Managing Venturer. Through the joint venture, the companies will combine OxfordGC’s depth in advanced technology solutions, field and operational support, and federal program execution complementing MGR’s status and proven capabilities across information technology, staffing, cybersecurity, change management, operations, and humanitarian support services.

“The formation of MissionFirst JV represents a strategic investment in our shared vision to better serve federal customers with agility, innovation, and integrity,” said Gregg Kelly, Chief Executive Officer of OxfordGC. “By pairing OxfordGC’s scale, technical expertise, and delivery excellence with MGR’s small business qualifications, we are creating a powerful entity that expands access to opportunities while maintaining an unwavering focus on mission success.”

MissionFirst JV is designed to compete for and perform prime federal contracts across a broad range of NAICS codes, with workshare aligned to the performance of work requirements applicable to each contract. The joint venture will emphasize compliance, transparency, and strong program management while enabling federal customers to benefit from the combined experience, resources, and capabilities of both member firms.

“MissionFirst JV significantly strengthens our growth platform in the federal market,” said Mike Hall, Vice President of Growth at OxfordGC. “This joint venture allows us to pursue opportunities that demand both small business agility and enterprise-level delivery. Together with MGR, we are well positioned to help agencies solve complex challenges and deliver measurable results from day one.”

With MissionFirst JV, OxfordGC and MGR reaffirm their shared commitment to supporting defense, civilian, and humanitarian missions across the federal government. The joint venture is immediately positioned to pursue new opportunities and support customers with scalable, compliant, and mission-driven solutions.

About Oxford Government Consulting, LLC: Oxford Government Consulting (OxfordGC) provides federal and commercial clients with specialized software solutions, advanced technology support services, field operations support, and healthcare and benefits services. OxfordGC supports defense and civilian agencies, veterans, and citizens through innovative, mission-focused solutions.

About MGR Professional Services, Inc.: MGR Professional Services, Inc. is an SBA 8(a) small business providing professional services across information technology and cybersecurity, change management and operations, and humanitarian support. MGR partners with federal agencies to deliver compliant, high-quality solutions that advance critical mission objectives.
